Newtown Public Schools Publication Permission & Right to Privacy Form

Copyright is a form of protection provided by the laws of the United States (title 17, U.S. Code) to the authors of "original works of authorship," including literary, dramatic, musical, artistic, and certain other intellectual works. This protection is available to both published and unpublished works.

The school district acknowledges student ownership and copyright of all of their intellectual property.

Our students do work we are proud of and would like to showcase. This may be done in the form of a school/community based publication as listed below:

Where We May Publish

- Internet/District/PTA Publications (yearbook, newsletters, flyers, newspapers, etc.)
- Local/Regional Newspapers
- Local Public Access of Education Access Cable Channel

What We May Publish on Internet Pages

- Student name (first name and last initial) High School includes student's last name
- Student Image (still or video, analog or digital)
- Student Work (any deemed appropriate by the teacher)

This form only needs to be returned if you decline permission for your child to be included in any of the above publications.
